Teamshares Establishes Investor Relations Function, Appoints Mike Levin as Senior Director of IR

November 3, 2026

NEW YORK, Nov. 03, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Teamshares (Nasdaq:TMS), a tech-enabled acquiror of SMEs, announced today that Mike Levin has joined the Company as Senior Director of Investor Relations. Mike Levin is a CFA charterholder that brings significant experience in public company investor relations and equity research, including helping build the investor relations function at Carvana following an equity research role at Deutsche Bank. He will report to Nile Corso, Head of Capital Markets, and will focus on expanding Teamshares' institutional investor relationships and shareholder engagement.

“Mike’s experience in investor relations and equity research will be valuable as we build our IR function and expand our engagement with institutional investors. We look forward to working with Mike to broaden awareness and understanding of Teamshares among public market investors,” said Nile Corso, CFA.

About Teamshares
Teamshares is a tech-enabled acquiror of high-quality businesses, intending to be a permanent home for businesses.
